CountrySide Chronicle Monthly News Scalendar November 2018

In September 1620, a small ship called the Mayflower left Plymouth, England, carrying 102 passengers — an assortment of religious separatists seeking a new home where they could freely practice their faith, and other individuals lured by the promise of prosperity and land ownership in the New World. After a treacherous crossing that lasted 66 days, they dropped anchor near the tip of Cape Cod. One month later, the Mayflower crossed Massachusetts Bay, where the Pilgrims, as they are now commonly known, began the work of establishing a village at Plymouth.

Throughout that first brutal winter, most of the colonists remained on board the ship, where they suffered from exposure, scurvy and outbreaks of contagious diseases. Only half of the Mayflower's original passengers and crew lived to see their first New England spring. In March, the remaining settlers moved ashore, where they received an astonishing visit from an Abenaki Indian who greeted them in English. Several days later, he returned with another Native American, Squanto, a member of the Pawtuxet tribe who had been kidnapped by an English sea captain and sold into slavery, before escaping to London and returning to his homeland on an exploratory expedition. Squanto taught the Pilgrims, weakened by malnutrition and illness, how to cultivate corn, extract sap from maple trees, catch fish in the rivers and avoid poisonous plants. He also helped the settlers forge an alliance with the Wampanoag, a local tribe, which would endure for more than 50 years.

In November 1621, after the Pilgrims' first corn harvest proved successful, Governor William Bradford organized a celebratory feast and invited a group of the fledgling colony's Native American allies, including the Wampanoag chief, Massasoit. Now remembered as American's "first Thanksgiving"— although the Pilgrims themselves may

From the Director's Desk

We dodged another hurricane in October. We will be listening closely for ways to help the Florida Gulf Coast with relief. Pray for all those impacted by Michael. It was a devastating storm with horrific damage left in its wake.

November brings the start of the Holiday Season. We will celebrate Thanksgiving twice this month. First on Friday the 16th and of course on Thursday the 22nd. The reason for two dates is to help the families that are planning family visits out of town. It gives our residents the opportunity to share the meal with their families. Please pick a date and join us.

This year we have become a drop off location for the National Organization Toys for Tots. We are proud to be involved with this group. What is donated locally, stays local. That is very important to all of us.

Last, but by no means least, we have adopted the Cuda's Unhooked house. This is a small home for local at risk teens. A truly worthy cause for us to support. We have chosen them not just for this holiday season, but for the future. We want to help the house and the kids throughout the year and years to come. Pleas visit their website to find out more about them.

www.cudasunhooked.org

We will also have a link added to our website for them.

Remember, this a time of year to be thankful. Thank someone who is or has been instrumental in your life and or your career. Also, take the opportunity to be a part of someone's success story. Make a difference.

Congratulations Myrna & Dan!

Bella is thankful to be part of our family. She enjoys coming to see each and everyone of you. Bella looks forward to pats on the head, belly rubs, and sweet words for the great job she does. Bella is also thankful for the simple things in life such as naps, walks, and most of all her dinner!

Bella's Tips for Healthy Living for our Fur Friends

- Provide adequate shelter
- Supply clean, dry bedding
- Provide clean, fresh water
- Feed a high-quality pet food
- Maintain proper body weight
- Exercise your dog regularly
- Play with your dog daily
- Take your dog to the vet at least once a year
- Keep your dog under control at all times
- Give your dog a purpose

A HAPPY DOG IS A TIRED DOG

You can easily tell if your dog is getting the right amount of exercise by noting what the dog does when you are finished. If the dog falls over and sleeps for the rest of the day, you probably overdid it. If she runs up to you with her favorite ball and wants to play fetch, well maybe you should throw the ball until she uses up some more energy. If she wants to rest and take a short nap, you've found the right amount of exercise for your dog.

not have used the term at the time — the festival lasted for three days. While no record exists of the historic banquet's exact menu, the Pilgrim chronicler Edward Winslow wrote in his journal that Governor Bradford sent four men on a "fowling" mission in preparation for the event, and that the Wampanoag guests arrived bearing five deer. Historians have suggested that many of the dishes were likely prepared using traditional Native American spices and cooking methods. Because the Pilgrims had no ovens and the Mayflower's sugar supply had dwindled by the fall of 1621, the meal did not feature pies, cakes or other desserts, which have become a hallmark of contemporary celebrations.

Pilgrims held their second Thanksgiving celebration in 1623 to mark the end of a long drought that had threatened the year's harvest and prompted Governor Bradford to call for a religious fast. Days of fasting and thanksgiving on an annual or occasional basis became common practice in other New England settlements as well.

During the American Revolution, the Continental Congress designated one or more days of thanksgiving a year, and in 1789 George Washington issued the first Thanksgiving proclamation by the national government of the United States; in it, he called upon Americans to express their gratitude for the happy conclusion to the country's war of independence and the successful ratification of the U.S. Constitution. His successors, John Adams and James Madison, also designated days of thanks during their presidencies.

In 1863, Abraham Lincoln, at the height of the Civil War, made a proclamation entreating all Americans to ask God to "commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife" and to "heal the wounds of the nation." He scheduled Thanksgiving for the final Thursday in November, and it was celebrated on that day every year until 1939, when Franklin D. Roosevelt moved the holiday up a week in an attempt to spur retail sales during the Great Depression. Roosevelt's plan, known derisively as Franksgiving, was met with passionate opposition, and in 1941 the president reluctantly signed a bill making Thanksgiving the fourth Thursday in November.

WE ARE THANKFUL FOR YOU!

Let our lives be full of Thanks & Giving! All of us at Shepherd Living wish you and yours a wonderful Thanksgiving. Here are a few of our resident holiday decorations to celebrate.
