From the Director's Desk

We are March-ing right into warmer weather, beautiful sunny days, and a little luck of the Irish! February was full of Love, a little cold, and some really wet days, but it sure did go by fast.

The majority of our residents have received both doses of the vaccine and a few others will receive their second dose this month. We continue to stay vigilant and work hard to remain healthy. You are all doing an amazing job and for that I thank you.

We are thrilled to welcome Sheri Marcum to our team. Sheri is our new Administrative Assistant, she brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to this position. Please welcome Sheri to the CSL family.

St. Patrick's day is this month and we know, we have so many lucky residents and staff who share some Irish blood.

May luck be your friend in whatever you do and may trouble be always a stranger to you.

Make everyday a great day!

Michaelene

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

Karin Murphy

Karin was born September 30, 1940 in East Germany and moved near Frankfurt to escape the war. She excelled in school and learned English. She met and married an American G.I. who had German parents and moved to Libby, Montana. Her husband worked in a sawmill there and she has fond memories of the beauty of the mountains, snow, and their love. They had two children, a son who lives here in Port Orange, and a daughter who has gone to heaven. The family moved to Iowa, then to New Jersey and finally settled in Hazelhurst, Georgia. She enjoyed Georgia, but admits the accents were a challenge to understand for some time. She moved here to be closer to her son, as well as her three wonderful grandsons, and two beautiful granddaughters. She loves to play Bridge, Bingo, cook, play golf, and all forms of needlework. Her motto is simple: "Treat others the way you wish to be treated." Welcome Home, Karin – we are so happy to have you as part of the CountrySide Lakes family.

Bella's Corner

Dear Friends,

I hope you know how much I miss you. I sure do wish all the humans could smile at me, I can't see anyones mouths. How am I supposed to know if they are eating and want to share a snack with me!

I hope you all are having fun, I heard Stephanie lets you throw balls in the atrium! That will be very exciting for me to see. I hope you still get cookies twice a day. My friends here don't bake very often and it is usually something that is good for you. I am sad some days because I really want to be with you but I promise they have this beautiful little human named Harper who is so much fun, she likes me to be her assistant, and lets me play games with her, she also gives the best snuggles.

When things get hard, or life has a challenge you have to look to your left and look to your right. There will always be a friend there on either side. They help us get through it all and help us celebrate the triumphs.

I look forward to being at your side again very soon. Please take good care of each other, be kind with your words, and try not to sniff people, my mom says its rude.

I love you all and can't wait for you to pat my head, rub my belly, and drop a cookie!

Paws Furever,
Bella

A message of faith from Danny & Linda

We love you and will see you soon!

“I can do all this through him who gives me strength.”
– Philippians 4:13 (NIV)

There will be moments when your faith falters, when you're lonely or exhausted or just plain sad. There will be moments where grief grabs ahold of you and crumbles you to the ground, where all that you've believed feels empty, and when each breath feels like a chore. But in these moments, you will find redemption and power in His name. In these moments, if you choose to follow Him, He will guide you away from the heartbreak, the loneliness, the death, the loss, the toughest moments of your life, and back into His arms. God's word and love will give you strength, even when you feel empty.

So trust Him. Give Him control. Give Him your fears and anxieties and aches. Give Him all of you, and allow Him to work His beauty and grace into your life. Let Him remind you are—a child of God.

*“Love one another with brotherly affection.
Out-do one another in showing honor.”*
— Romans 12:10 (ESV)

Not only is God always with you, but you are surrounded by a community of believers. There are so many people who care for you, who have good intentions with your heart, who long to protect and love and support you when you're low. Reach out to these people. Be open to their help. Solicit advice and kindness when you need it. Build friendships. Open your heart.

You were never meant to face this world alone.

Talk to the people you sit by at church. Extend a helping hand to someone who's struggling. Pray for a stranger, for a friend, for someone you've never met. Know that God intended His community to be here on earth and build those connections all around you. You are never alone.
